Campaign Against
United States

Washington, July 5 (AP)—Generals George C. Marshall and Dwight D. Eisenhower today urged expanding "Voice of America" program to combat Russia's world propaganda campaign against the United States.

The World War 2 army leaders gave strong support to the proposal by Senator Benton (D-Conn.) for a "Marshall Plan of Ideas." Among other things, Benton's plan calls for vast increase in "Voice" broadcasts overseas.

Marshall told a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee the United States should have a dynamic information program. But he also cautioned that "we must not stretch ourselves too far" in appropriations.

Marshall was army chief of staff in World War 2 and later served as secretary of state.

"In Complete Accord" Eisenhower, wartime Allied commander and now president of Columbia University, told senators he is "in complete and absolute accord" with the proposals for countering Russian propaganda.

Both former generals were in civilian clothing. They spoke informally from pencilled notes.

"What we are actually talking about here is the morale factor in any struggle," Eisenhower said, adding that an essential in morale "is an understanding of the issues involved."

Citing a need for the kind of program proposed by Benton, Eisenhower said the United States (Continued on Page 8, Col. 7)

Budget Director
Might Be Named
By County Board

Appointment of a budget director may be one of the matters to come before the Board of Supervisors Thursday evening at an adjourned session.

Under a new law which became effective on July 1, a director of the county budget must be named. It shall be his duty to prepare the budget which will become effective on January 1, 1951, and to hold a public hearing on the budget prior to its approval. Under the law the budget director may be the clerk of the Board of Supervisors, the county treasurer or a budget director may be appointed outside the present officials.

It is understood that the Republican leadership will not add to the county payroll the office of budget director, but will have one of the county employees, who is familiar with making up the budget take over the job and the additional title.

Another matter which is expected to come before the Board is the appointment of a county auditor and purchasing agent to succeed J. H. Heston, retired. Heston held the office since it was created some years ago. Being prominently mentioned for this position is Joseph Gentile of Ellenville, a jailer on the staff of Sheriff Smith.

Whether any action will be taken on the recent resignation of Dr. J. Spethwood Taylor, director of the Tumor Clinic, submitted to the Board of Health last week, is not known. Dr. Taylor's resignation was received by the Board of Health on June 26 and accepted with regret.

James Fulton, 80, is Hit-Run Victim, State Police Say; Coroner Reports Autopsy Probe Continues

Accident Monday Night
Brings Investigation
by Troopers

One death due to traffic accidents marked the fourth of July holidays in this area, that of James Fulton, about 80, of Fish Creek, town of Saugerties, who was known throughout that area as Jimmie Fulton. He was struck down by a car about 6:30 o'clock Monday evening as he was walking along the Woodstock-Saugerties road about a half mile from Saugerties. He died at the Benedictine Hospital Tuesday afternoon.

State Police from Lake Katrine are still investigating the accident which they describe as a "hit and run" accident. Sergeant A. A. Rilly and Trooper H. Rasmussen conducted the investigation.

Coroner Ernest A. Kelly reported death as accidental and said death was due to a fractured skull and brain laceration. An autopsy was performed by Dr. J. Spethwood Taylor and B. W. Gifford. No clue as to the operator of the car has been found.

Surviving are two nephews, William Dixon of the Irvington Inn, Woodstock, and Robert Dixon of Saugerties; three nieces, Theresa Dixon of Saugerties and Florence and Dorothy of Brooklyn.

Funeral services will be held from the Keenan & Son Funeral Home, Saugerties, Thursday at 9:30 a. m. and from St. Mary's Church at 10 a. m. Burial in St. Mary's Cemetery, Saugerties.

Minor Accidents

The State police and sheriff report numerous minor accidents but the Saugerties accident was the only serious one to mark the week-end holiday.

Traffic was exceptionally heavy Sunday but the return traffic Tuesday was considerably lighter, indicating many of those who came up Friday and Saturday had remained in the country on vacation.

At Lake Katrine and Highland sub-stations traffic was reported to have been steady Tuesday but there was no congestion and accidents were confined to minor tangles in which injury was also of a minor nature.

Food Prices Boom

New York, July 5 (AP)—The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week soared its sharpest rise in nearly two years, reflecting the increased buying and higher commodity prices which followed the Korean outbreak.

The index advanced 13 points from the previous week to 56.19—highest since the 56.21 on December 28, 1948 and 94 per cent above the year-ago week's 55.66. This was the steepest rise since the week of July 13, 1948, when the index climbed 24 cents to the record peak of 57.36.

Plan Sham Battles

London, July 5 (AP)—Airplanes, submarines and ships of the five Brussels treaty powers will be thrown into war games in the English Channel within the next two weeks. The British Admiralty said today the object of the exercise is to practice the protection of convoys against planes, subs and mines. The treaty nations are Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Confiscate Fireworks

State police at Highland were kept busy over the Fourth of July holiday investigating complaints of fireworks. Several packages of fireworks shipped in from out of the state were confiscated and destroyed. There were no arrests made but the recipients were warned that possession of fireworks was a violation of the state law.

Eisenhower Tells 47,000
Decision Was Inescapable

Valley Forge, Pa., July 5 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower says the U. S. decision to assist South Korea in resisting "outrageous invasion" was inescapable.

And, Eisenhower told 47,000 Boy Scouts at their second national jamboree last night the decision "must be carried to its conclusion by whatever means are necessary."

The general who commanded Allied forces in Europe during World War II pointed out American failure to aid South Korea "would be another kind of Munich, with all the disastrous consequences that followed in the wake of the fatal error 12 years ago."

Eisenhower now is president of Columbia University.

In his July 4th address he made it clear to the Scouts what American freedom means—and what it costs.

His voice echoing across the fields where George Washington's army survived the harsh winter of 1777-78. The former supreme Allied commander in Europe declared:

"Here at Valley Forge, every relic, every monument assures us that even hunger, pain, nakedness and indescribable hardship cannot wholly dishearten those whose (Continued on Page 5, Col. 7).

Yank Infantry Is Caught

Gets Close Protection

Washington, July 5 (AP)—Protection of the all-important sea route linking Southern Korea with Japan is getting high priority in the Far East war operations.

Ships of the United States and British Navy and land-based patrol planes of the American Navy are scouting the waters along the Korean coast and the sea lane across to the southern port of Pusan to keep them swept clear of raider vessels or aircraft.

The expected arrival of an Essex class carrier in the area will augment this protective cover for the supply ships and troop transports upon which the heavier part of the military build-up in Korea hinges.

Dispatches from the Far East and reports at Washington indicate that up to now the only menace has been from small surface craft, chiefly of the motor torpedo boat type, and the North Korean Air Force. A communist command said ironically that transportation of munitions, materiel, supplies and troops from points in Japan to Korea continued unimpeded throughout the day.

Subs Might Be Used

No one here was inclined to bury, behind easy victories of cruisers over motor torpedo boats, the possibility that submarines might enter the picture. As far as is known, the North Korean Navy has not included submarines, but there has been speculation that such craft could be transferred or loaned from the fleet of the North Koreans' powerful friend, Russia.

At Washington, Pentagon brief officers said yesterday they had received no information on what types of aircraft were being used by the navy in the anti-submarine and surface vessel patrol. They assumed the planes were land-based.

From Bases in Japan

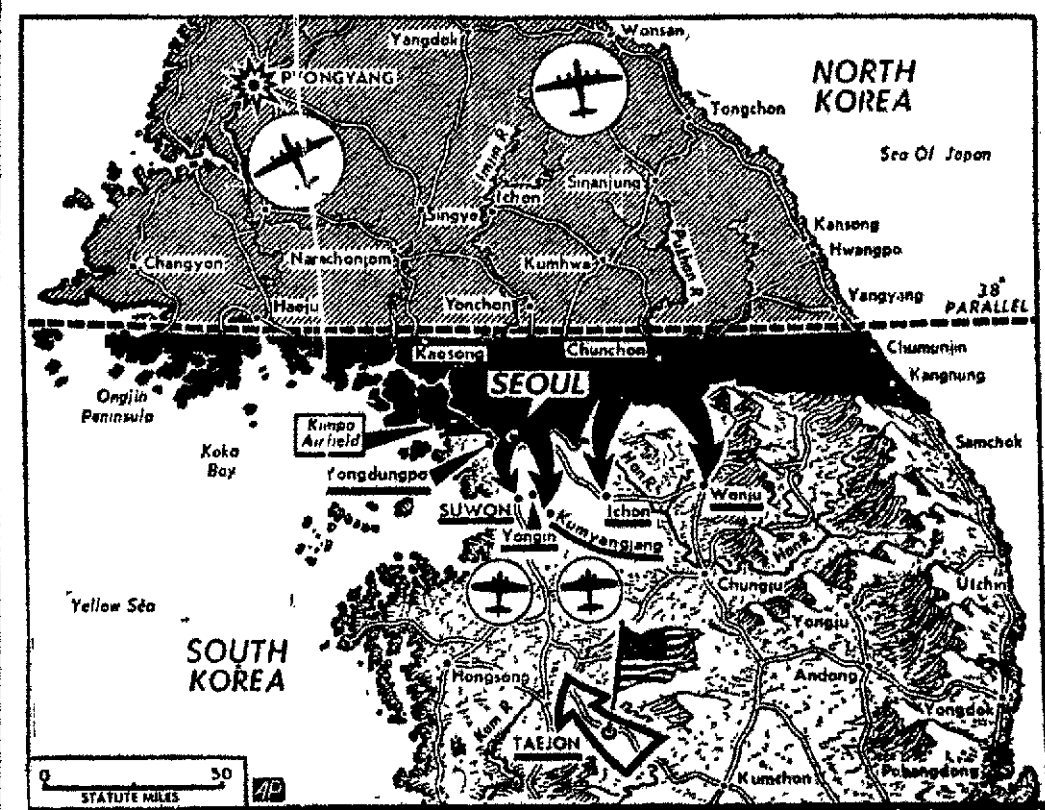

This would mean that they operate from bases in Japan, since Pusan is the only Korean airfield suitable for use by heavy or fast airplanes and it is congested. That means the time which the patrol planes can spend in actual search is reduced by the hours required to fly the several hundred miles from Japan to the Korea coast lines.

Moreover, the slow, lightly armed patrol planes generally must fly without protection against hostile air attack. Arrival of carrier aviation will provide additional fighter power for the patrol aircraft.

Cleveland, July 5 (AP)—Cleveland harbor was closed to alien tourists today as a security measure.

Where North Korean Drives Slowed to Halt

Drives of North Korean forces (black arrows) appeared halted as units took time to regroup for a new all-out assault southeast of Seoul. U. S. troops being rushed forward (open arrow) through Taejon have not been reported in contact with the invaders. Australian and U. S. fighter pilots (small plane symbols) reported most Communist columns and supply convoys remaining under cover during daylight to avoid intensified strafing. Heavy U. S. bombers again pounded targets deep in North Korea.

Fireworks

(By The Associated Press)

Accidental death struck down at least 739 Americans during their four day Independence Day week-end. The toll was much higher than expected, and rocketed toward the all-time high set in 1936—761 deaths.

Citizens died in traffic crashes, by drowning, and by miscellaneous accidents at a little better than one every 10 minutes during the 102 hour period between 6 p. m. local time Friday and last night at midnight.

Highway smashups claimed 458 lives in what was predicted as the biggest U. S. traffic jam in history. Water deaths totaled 168. Miscellaneous kinds of mishaps killed 113.

No one was reported killed in fourth of July fireworks tragedies, but the other deaths were tied in with Independence Day celebrations.

The National Safety Council had predicted that 385 would die in traffic crashes. But the toll mounted and mounted as the holiday drivers coursed along the highways.

Issues Appeal

Mid-way through yesterday, as death figures kept piling up, Ned H. Dearborn, council president, issued a sane driving appeal to "try our best to save at least a few lives by acting like civilized people on the highways."

Dearborn had predicted that 36,000,000 cars would roll 5,600,000,000 miles over the nation's roads. He classified it as the United States' biggest traffic jam.

The 1936 death record was set (Continued on Page 8, Col. 7)

North Korean Force Is Sizeable, Observers
Estimate

Tokyo, July 5 (AP)—Tank-led North Korean Infantry today pocketed an American infantry position south of Suwon.

That happened after the Communist tanks apparently had been turned back in a duel with U. S. artillery.

It was the first combat in Korea for the G.I.s who were rushed into action to try to save the faltering South Koreans.

The action occurred some miles south of Suwon, which the Reds captured yesterday.

The fate of the trapped Americans was not reported to U. S. Advanced headquarters in South Korea. That report came from Associated Press Correspondent C. H. P. King. He added:

"Reports of the surprisingly quick Red maneuver came not long after the American commander in Korea, Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, had gone to the front to try to learn details of the tank-artillery duel."

In that engagement, two tanks were reported knocked out and the other six retreated.

But the surviving tanks bypassed the artillery, then cut in between the forward gun positions and their supporting infantry.

An undisclosed number of South Korean troops also were trapped—between the tank-led Red infantry and their own defense line.

A U. S. liaison plane said a Red force of undetermined size was moving southeast from Suwon.

Earlier, General MacArthur's headquarters said American planes had destroyed seven and damaged four North Korean aircraft in the 11-day old war.

In Tokyo General MacArthur announced British and American carrier planes made slashing attacks on Communist targets Monday and Tuesday.

Planes from the U. S. Carrier Valley Forge and the British Carrier Triumph struck Pyongyang, North Korean capital. They accounted for two Russian built Yak fighters in the air and strafed six more and two Li-2s on the ground.

All personnel from both carriers returned safely to their ships, MacArthur said.

Heavy damage to Pyongyang air installations was reported.

Face 40,000 Reds American forces are in action against a North Korean force estimated at around 40,000 men.

Announcement of knockout of the tanks came from a high source at the advanced American base in Korea. It was confirmed here, partly by an army spokesman and the Korean defense minister, Shin Sung Moon.

The advanced base spokesman told King that no direct communication from the American force engaged in battle had been received. He said his information came from Korean sources.

General MacArthur's communiqué announced the air victory. It listed seven Korean planes destroyed and four damaged.

MacArthur's headquarters estimated the Communists have between three and four divisions south of the Han river, which had been the South Korean defense line until the Reds broke through. The Reds were involved in an enveloping action near the American positions.

More U. S. heavy bombers were being prepared for action.

MacArthur's communiqué reported the Reds had lost, in addition to the seven destroyed planes, eight armored cars, 119 trucks, 22 locomotives, 18 box cars and seven tanks.

Warships accounted for six Red trawlers and five motor torpedo (Continued on Page 8, Col. 3)

Four Persons Die In Route 17 Crash

Rock Hill, N. Y., July 5 (AP)—Four persons died Monday when a heavy trailer truck bounced off a bus and head-on into their light passenger car on Route 17 near here.

State police said the bus—carrying no passengers—slowed suddenly for a pushcart.

The truck smashed into the rear of the bus, then careened into the oncoming sedan, police said.

Killed outright were Mrs. Moses Horwitz, Dorchester, Mass., and Thomas Finn, 55, and his wife, Nadia, 50, of Malden, Mass. The car's driver, Moses Horwitz, 51, died later in a hospital.

John Calli, the truck driver employed by the Coca-Cola Co. of Newburgh, N. Y., was injured.

State police said the bus was owned by Rockland Coaches, Inc., of Bergenfield, N. J. Its driver, James Matthews, 31, of West Nyack, N. Y., was not hurt.

Boulder, Colo., is known as the "gateway to the glaciers."

Yank Infantry ...

No official statement of any kind has been issued by MacArthur's headquarters on the ground fighting since the announcement that the Americans had gone into action at 11 a. m. (8 p. m. E.S.T. Tuesday).

Minister Sihan Sully Mo said the American artillery had forced a Communist column to retreat, but this had not been confirmed by any other source.

Heavy rain prevented the landing of a liaison officer near the American positions to determine the progress of the ground action, an army spokesman here said.

Soviet Surprise Expected

Hong Kong, July 5 (AP)—Diplomatic observers today predicted Soviet Russia is setting the stage for a surprise move against the United States in the Far East.

They said the Russians, probably would rush Chinese Communist troops from Manchuria to aid Soviet-supported North Korea in the Korean civil war.

Such a move "can be expected any time within the next month, and probably within two weeks," they added. All demanded unanimity.

One observer gave these reasons for forecasting a Soviet offensive in the Far East:

1—His country (and he declined to say what nation) as well as his name for diplomatic reasons has "definite word" that the Chinese Red troops in Manchuria can be expected to cross into North Korea as Russia's answer to American support for invaded South Korea.

2—The recent withdrawal from Tokyo of high level members of the Soviet mission could be considered an "indication that something big is brewing." He declined to elaborate.

Diplomatic observers agree generally that Chinese Communist participation in Korea is virtually certain. Nevertheless, they also are inclined to believe that Soviet Russia has not yet made up her mind as to how far she is ready to go in the Far East at this time.

Accident Toll Is

500-mile state Thruway.

Twenty-six persons were killed in highway accidents throughout the state during the four-day holiday period.

Bixby spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Poughkeepsie Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

He said in a prepared speech that "holiday week-end accidents and fatalities such as are taking place in this state this Fourth of July holiday period are a wholly unnecessary American phenomenon."

He added:

"They must be eliminated completely. We must redouble our efforts at urging safety in driving, but we must also recognize the human element involved and provide streamlined highways like the Thruway to meet the needs of our age."

"Because of the depression and the war years, New York's highways have not kept pace with our modern, motorized age, Bixby declared. "They are outmoded," he added.

Bixby noted that there were 74,675 motor vehicle accidents in the state during 1941, and that 26,845 persons were injured. Last year, he said, the totals soared to 259,896 accidents and 123,456 injured.

Air Rifle Taken From Boy by Cops

Police took an air rifle from a 14-year-old boy Monday afternoon following reports that a 10-year-old boy had been hit in an arm by a shot.

Officers Elbert Sopér and Henry Ronenberg investigated and confiscated the rifle from the boy who lives on Tompkins street.

Another report at 5:35 p. m., said an elderly woman on Hudson street had been struck by a stone as she was working in her yard. Officer Gurnea, Burger 17, investigated and said the stone, weighing about a half pound, struck one arm, and it was believed to have been tossed by a child playing near School No. 2.

Other reports of malicious mischief in the city during the past few days drew from the police the warning that parents will be held responsible for such acts.

One report from a downtown tavern owner said that several figures had been painted on one side of the building, and there were earlier reports of similar destructive mischief.

The police advise parents to warn their children to refrain from destructive mischief.

Ellenville Store Damaged by Fire

Ellenville, July 5—Fire in the rear of the Kaplan Dress Shop on Canal street, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., caused considerable damage to that part of the store, Chief Ben Litchock reported, and also to stock and living quarters on the upper floor.

Exact amount of loss could not be determined, the chief said, until after an inventory of the stock, which was affected mostly by water and smoke.

As to the cause, Chief Litchock said there were no heating facilities in the part of the store where the fire started and no electric wires.

Herbert Kaplan, a son of the owner, told the chief there were no signs of fire when he left the building about 6 p. m. an hour and a half previous to the alarm.

Three fire companies fought the blaze that burned through a partition into the upper story and mushroomed under a tin roof, the chief said.

There were 60 volunteers in action on the fire from Pioneer, Kimble and Scoresby Hose companies. They removed considerable merchandise from the store.

Wires Crossed, TV Gets Private Tip

New Haven, Conn., July 5 (AP)—The television audience of New Haven Station WNHG learned last night that a New Haven woman thought it was "too damn hot in front" of her house. She was going to spend the rest of the evening in her back yard, she said.

The television audience heard it from the woman's own lips when a private telephone line became crossed in some manner, as yet unexplained, with the circuit carrying the audio part of the TV broadcast.

There were other telephone conversations audible to the TV audience, too—off and on for four and a half hours.

None of them, said a WNHG spokesman, were "quite so violent" as the conversation heard a couple of years ago by listeners of a New York radio station which got mixed up with a private telephone line. On that occasion thousands of people heard a man's voice call baseball broadcaster Mel Allen a name that's never, never used in radio.

during the four day Christmas holiday period. At that time 555 of the 761 deaths were in automobile accidents.

On a four-day non-holiday week-end last month, an Associated Press tally across the country showed that only 453 persons met accidental death. Of these, 270 died in traffic mishaps, 75 drowned and 110 died from other accidental causes. The survey was made by the AP to compare holiday and non-holiday fatalities figures.

Day Nursery Needs

While contribution of funds is the primary object of the appeal, authorities at the nursery also are anxious to receive playground and playroom equipment. Donations of used toys also are sought.

Will Make Appeal

Nursery mothers also are planning to make personal appeals to residents of this area in order to obtain financial contributions. Persons who are not visited are asked to send their contributions to the Day Nursery, 24 Barmann avenue.

Persons having toys may leave them at the Barmann avenue address or may call 3583 and such items will be collected.

Generals Urge

States had moved into Korea "with the very best of intentions" to preserve the independence of the South Korea Republic.

But he said the move has been "so twisted by shrewd propagandists" for the Communists that it has been made to look like a vicious act of American imperialism.

Benton took a similar line earlier in urging approval of his plan. He said the Korean war stemmed from failure of the United States "to shatter Russian propaganda with truth."

B-29s on Way

March Field, Calif., July 5 (AP)—An undisclosed number of B-29s from the 22nd Bombardment Group here are on their way to the Far East today. Officers refused to pinpoint their destination. The planes left last night. Families of crewmen were on the runway to wave farewell.

MISSING OFFICER

Lt. Edward M. Crays, 24, (above) son of Mrs. Marie Crays of Lock Haven, Pa., has been listed by the Army as among those missing on an Army transport flight between Japan and Korea. Crays, shown here in a private's uniform, was listed as one of 11 on the flight, one of the first casualty lists. (AP Wirephoto) jump was set by Juan Triate of Buenos Aires, May 19, 1950.

Paratrooper Makes

More than 10,000 persons jammed Sandrock Airport to see Swetich erase that mark and go 18 jumps better.

Swetich planned to jump 150 times, but quit at 11:15 last night after 123.

At the end, looking tired with a day's growth of beard, his hair tousled and wearing an old sweat-shirt, he said, "I'm glad it's over with."

Asked why he did it, he told a reporter: "I wanted to keep the title in the U. S. I did it one time and I wanted to do it again."

The "one time" Swetich referred to was when he set a U. S. record of 60 jumps at Sioux City, Iowa, in 1946.

Swetich made his first jump at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. He made his 107th jump shortly after noon.

Only Slight Mishap

His only mishap came on his 50th try when he suffered a slight knee injury. During the afternoon he rested.

At 6 p. m. he was scheduled to start again with a goal of 150 jumps. High winds, however, delayed him more than two hours.

It was the wind that caused him to knock off at 123. After that he said, "I almost broke my neck on that jump. I've got the record and I think I better quit now."

It took, besides the five pilots, two piper cub airplanes, seven parachutes, and six parachute riggers, going full blast to help Swetich going. Also one pack of crackers—that's all he ate from start to finish. He trained for six months to get in shape for the grueling effort.

A little old-fashioned courtesy
is a big help on a party line

Answer Promptly

The ring of your telephone means someone wants to speak to you. So why keep them waiting and needlessly tie up the line when, so many times, it's just as easy to answer promptly. Here are some other suggestions to help you and your friends get the best party line service:

In an emergency give up the line promptly.

Hang up gently when the line is in use.

Space your calls when you have several to make.

Teach your children the "Golden Rule" of party line usage.

In many places we are still unable to provide a better grade of service than that which you now have. We are working hard to provide the necessary switchboards, cables and other complicated equipment—and we're keeping a careful record of all applications for better grades of service. They will be filled just as soon as possible.

Postwar Europe

(The following is one of a series of letters from a former resident of this area, who has returned to Europe for an extended stay and gives his impressions of postwar Europe, as seen through the eyes of a civilian going back to the scenes he knew as a soldier during the war.)

For a different kind of Sunday, you might take in the Flea Market, of which there are several on the outskirts of Paris. But the more noted one is located at the Porte de Clignancourt, at the end of the Metro Line (that's the name of the Paris subway system).

On week-ends and particularly Sundays, this usually drab region becomes a beehive of activity. A tent-city welcomes visitors, shoppers and the curious to wend their way among the maze of makeshift shops selling everything under the sun. It's like the bazaars at Cairo or maybe New York's 14th street on a busy Saturday.

If you look long enough you might come up with a priceless antique among the piles of useless junk, forgotten mementoes and faded heirlooms, but you can never tire of looking—that is, if you have a good strong pair of feet and insatiable curiosity.

Down one alley of stores, you might find a bust of Napoleon lacking only one ear, but dirt cheap, as the moon-faced proprietors will assure you. Or if Monsieur is not satisfied he can procure one of Josephine before you can say "Waterloo." And then you pass on for a bust of Napoleon or even Josephine is not exactly what you were looking for to decorate a Paris apartment.

If you look long enough, perhaps you can find the greatest collection of old bridge prizes or left-over wedding gifts in the world all for sale at bargain-basement prices in the Paris Flea Market—all a little shopworn and perhaps the worse for wear, but they are here for the asking.

In a tiny little cafe, sandwiched in among the many shops that is difficult to even find the entrance a bearded musician is playing a violin and the sad Gypsy music floats on the summer breeze like a thing out of the past. And then you are struck that in the midst of this conglomeration of things out of the past, it is entirely fitting and in place with the surroundings. The tourists and Parisians alike laugh in the cafe as the sad-faced violinist plays of the beautiful blue Danube and the songs of old Vienna and it seems to add a lilt to the whole Flea Market now being enveloped in the late afternoon shadows.

Further on, a shopkeeper tries to lure you into his shop showing you an Empire sword, which looks a little forlorn standing next to an Old Spanish Fan, mixed up in a collection of Oriental bric-a-brac, but you must expect such disorder in the Flea Market.

I had been told to look for the Laughing Bed by some one who had been there and had seen it. So I continued my search for this strange Eldorado. And then I saw it standing in a place of honor in the shop surrounded by such strange things as a slightly chipped ancient bathtub and a cracked mirror belonging to some uncertain period.

"Monsieur is interested in le lit qui rit," smiled the owner, and I nodded yes. Simply because I had never seen anything quite like it before, or hope to see anything like it again.

It was truly a laughing bed and I began to see the reason for its odd name. It was a giant bed, built perhaps fifty years ago, perhaps a hundred—it was hard to tell. But all over its gold gilt sides and head were dozens of carved cupids, each pulling each other's jaws apart in macabre grins—its so hideous it was beautiful.

I asked the shopkeeper what he wanted for this monstrosity and he snapped back 10,000 francs or roughly $30—cheap at half the price, for I was positive that there was nothing like it anywhere in the world, or perhaps would there ever be anything like it in the future. It was a pity I couldn't buy it, but I wished I could, for here was a conversation breaker. If I ever saw one. And besides if you ever had weekend guests, here was the perfect way to get rid of them. For no one who had ever seen the Laughing Bed would ever come again—I can imagine what it must have been to sleep in this cabinet-maker's nightmare.

But as you look over it as the shopkeepers get ready to close up their tent-made shops and like the Arabs silently steal away, you can truthfully say that the Flea Market is a wonderful place for entertainment if you just like to browse and see a little bit of everything float before your eyes.

P. D. Hoyt Dies

New Rochelle, N. Y., July 5 (AP)—Philip D. Hoyt, 61, former first deputy police commissioner, journalist and governor's secretary, died Monday night. Born in Brewster, N. Y., Hoyt had lived since his retirement at the Scarsdale

Golf Club in Hartsdale, N. Y. He died unexpectedly while visiting friends here. He worked for the New York Times 10 years, before and after the First World War. Then became secretary of the city department of finance. After seven years as deputy police commissioner, Hoyt became secretary-treasurer of the New York magazine. He was secretary to Governor Charles Poletti from 1940 to 1942. From that job he went to one with the Institute of Public Relations, where he worked for four years until his retirement in 1947.

Mrs. D. E. Schoonmaker who is ill at her home is reported to be improved.

The Rev. John Hart has been attending the youth conference of the Reformed Church at Oak-

Two Are Sentenced

Prague, Czechoslovakia, July 5 (AP)—The Prague official radio said today that a military court in Bucharest, Romania, has sentenced two men to death after a treason trial. Five others received sentences last night ranging from seven to 20 years imprisonment at hard labor. The lightest sentence, the radio said, went to Nicolau Popescu, former chauffeur in the Roman Catholic Apostolic Nunciature (Vatican Embassy) in Bucharest. Vasile Clobanu, a former pilot for one-time King Mihai, and Nicolae Valsan, former official of the Romanian merchant fleet, were sentenced to death. In previous reports of the case, Czechoslovakia press and radio agencies have said that Bishop Gerald P. O'Hara of Scranton, Pa., and Savannah, Ga., had engaged Popescu to spy for him. Bishop O'Hara is the papal nuncio (ambassador).

Proposal Is Studied

Paris, July 5 (AP)—West European leaders studied a proposal today to add wheat and wine to the coal and steel which the Schuman Plan proposes to put under international control. As experts on five committees began working out details for the coal-steel pool, heads of non-governmental farm organizations in France and Germany recommended that the plan also embrace wheat and wine as starters. Six west European governments—France, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Italy, already have agreed to join the coal-steel plan.

Nan Merriman, Famous Mezzo Soprano, Will Sing at Third Community Concert

Nan Merriman, mezzo soprano, frequent soloist with the major symphony orchestras, has been chosen for the third concert of next season's Kingston Community Concert Association series. Burt Ives, American folk song singer, and the Philharmonic Piano Quartet, were announced for two of the concerts during the recent membership campaign. Receives 20-Year Service Pin

In recognition of her 20 years of service to Girl Scouting in Ulster county, Mrs. Van Dyke Basten (left) receives a "Thanks Badge," highest award to adults in scouting, from Mrs. Charles Davis, district chairman. She was also presented with a 20-year service pin by Mrs. J. Haviland Barley. The awards were made at a tea in her honor for the members of the Kingston District Girl Scout Committee. Music Theatre of Woodstock Playhouse Will Present Four 'Serenade Concerts'

The Music Theatre of the Woodstock Playhouse with Ellie Siegmester, musical director, announces the opening of four "serenade concerts" beginning Sunday, July 16.

The season planned by The Music Theatre will feature a performance of Gian-Carlo Menotti's famed opera, "The Telephone" with Marilyn Colloff and Paul Kwartin of the original Broadway cast. Also included on the roster of musical events is a premiere performance of a new work by Ellie Siegmester.

An occasion of great interest will be the pre-Broadway opening of Langston Hughes' and Jan Mayrowitz's new American opera, "The Barrier" with Muriel Rahn and Charles Weidman.

The opening on Sunday, July 16, at the Playhouse will feature "The Telephone," and works of Mozart, Revueltas, Bach, and Prokofiev. The Serenade Orchestra concerts will be performed on Saturday, July 29, at the Town House and will feature Ellie Siegmester's "Funnybone Alley" with Marjorie Hess, soprano.

The remaining concerts for this first season will be heard on Saturday, August 12 at the Town House with a performance of "The Peasant Cantata" by Bach; on Saturday, August 26 at Town House with two outstanding works being offered. The first performance of "On Wenlock Edge" by relatives on the lawn of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Short of Port Ewen, became the bride Sunday of Donald Kenneth Deyo, son of Mrs. Kenneth Deyo of 13 Prince street, Kingston, and the late Mr. Deyo, in a double ceremony at the Port Ewen Methodist Church.

The Rev. Reighton D. Watson officiated. Mrs. Arthur Fowler was the organist, and Mrs. James Gaddis of Kingston sang traditional wedding solos. The church was decorated with madonna lilies, white lilies, roses and blue delphiniums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white mousseline de soie, with a tulle veil attached to a headpiece of gardenias. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of white roses, white delphiniums and baby's breath, with a corsage of white roses attached to the bouquet.

Maid of honor was Miss Beverly Jean Short, of Port Ewen, sister of the bride. She wore blue tulle with blue nylon mitts, and a tiara of blue nylon and pink rosebuds. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink roses.

Best man was Reginald Deyo of Van Buren street, Kingston, brother of the groom, and ushers were Jack Deyo, nephew of the groom, and Alanson W. Short, Jr., brother of the bride, of Port Ewen.

Good Taste Today

WEDDING PROBLEM

A bride describes this problem: "My own mother is not living; my father who is giving the wedding is married again and has two young children by this marriage. I have lived with my grandmother and her two sisters. I'm wondering who should take my mother's place at the wedding and reception? My stepmother and I are very good friends and I'm having both my half-sister and brother in the wedding. Could grandmother feel hurt if I chose my stepmother? What is usual?"

Unless she is ill or very feeble, your grandmother should sit in the third seat of the front pew with your father and stepmother. Or she may prefer to sit on the aisle and also going down. At the reception, your grandmother should also receive either standing beside your stepmother or just a little way apart. This last is more practical because it permits her friends to remain grouped around her.

Twosomes? No! Dear Mrs. Post: There is one woman in our group who thinks that everywhere we go and everything we do is in temporary couples. The wives should be with other husbands, not their own. She quotes you as her authority. The rest of us don't think you mean necessarily to go to the extreme.

Answer: I'm not sure about her interpretation of my meaning. According to etiquette, wives and husbands are not seated next to each other at dinner parties, and throughout the evening the conversation is properly in groups rather than two by two. This does not mean that husbands and wives avoid each other when in company, but merely that they do not limit their conversation to each other.

In Line of Duty Dear Mrs. Post: Should a hat-check girl help a man on with his coat? I believe I've read in your column that a woman does not give him this service.

Answer: Unless he is ill or handicapped, a friend does not hold his coat for him. A hat-check girl is a professional attendant and naturally does so.

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Would you like to know about cocktail parties—the invitation and what to serve? Her leaflet E-26 gives full details. To obtain a copy send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, care of The Kingston Freeman.

Chiefs Sweep Three From Colonials to Extend Lead to 5 1/2 Games

'New' Moundsmen Humble Locals In Holiday Games

More Than 2,000 See Game and Fireworks

Having sold half of their pitching staff to clubs in the Florida International League, the league-leading Poughkeepsie Chiefs called on one legitimate flinger (Billy Ostrom); an outfielder (Al Thomaier) and a second string catcher (Frank Eraca) to make a clean sweep of the three holiday games from the Colonials.

Pitching and batting like a demon, Ostrom gained a 4-3 decision Monday night at Riverview Field when Carlos Santiago connected for a broken-bat single with two out in the ninth.

Thomaier, who invariably performs like a man inspired against his old teammates, came within a bloop single of heaping the supreme indignity of a no-hitter in the 4th of July afternoon contest in Poughkeepsie. He won, 4 to 0.

Walther is a spoiler.

The bloop single was delivered by Johnny Walther with one out in the third inning.

Last night before a nearly 2,000 spectators at municipal stadium, Frank Eraca, a former Beacon High School catcher, staggered through an 11-hit job, leaving 11 stranded and striking out nine. He won, 3 to 2.

The triple loss dropped the Colonials 5 1/2 games behind the league leaders as they prepared to embark on a road jaunt that will keep them away from municipal stadium until Monday, July 10, when they entertain the Chiefs again.

Ostrom On Rampage

In addition to pitching a six-hitter, Ostrom cracked a pair of doubles and a triple to edge Johnny Manopol in a neat game on Monday.

Ostrom yielded three runs in the fourth when two errors, back to back doubles by Frank Merola and Sam Placentino and a long fly accounted for the trio.

Manopol had only one bad inning, the second, when Hy Prosk led off with a homer over the right field fence. A single by Polubiatka, doubles by Ostrom and Thomaier and two walks did the damage. Thomaier lashed his second double with one out in the ninth and scored on Santiago's hit over second.

Bob Kunze started the afternoon game Tuesday and was trailing 3-0 at the end of seven. Jack Sinnott's homer in the third and a two-run single by Ostrom in the sixth were the big blows.

Al Tefft, hero of Kingston's last victory over the Chiefs, had to leave last night's contest with a sore arm in the second and Artie Applebaum relieved him.

An error at the plate gave the Chiefs a 1-0 lead in the first. Bill Polubiatka's two-run single in the fifth provided the winning margin. Eraca was in command all the way except in the fourth when Nick Peio doubled home Frank Merola who had walked and Rudy Karson who had a single.

COLONIAL CAPERS: The feelings of the Colonials were assuaged somewhat by that better-than-2,000 crowd which set a new attendance record for 1950 in the Colonial League. Red Pope, Chief first sacker, extended his on-base streak to 11 straight before Artie Applebaum fanned him in the third. . . . Manopol handled redhead in good style Monday, fanning him on swinging third strikes three times. . . . Chico Gerard halted the Chiefs' Monday rally with a stunning one-hand running catch of Jack Sinnott's drive in deep center. . . . Nick Peio committed grand larceny on Polubiatka's drive in the fifth and Frank Merola made a nice running catch of Prosk's bid for a double in the eighth. . . . That big black dog who is a supreme exhibitionist and makes his appearance only before big crowds was on hand at the stadium last night. . . . He roared the crowd with two running broad jumps over the left field fence. . . . The pitching was uniformly good against the Chiefs but the club is in a mass slump.

Disbrow Wins

Stan Disbrow of Poughkeepsie captured his third feature victory at the Rhinebeck Speedway Saturday night. Neil Cole was second and Jocko Maggiano won third money.

Chico Gerard halted the Chiefs' Monday rally with a stunning one-hand running catch of Jack Sinnott's drive in deep center. . . . Nick Peio committed grand larceny on Polubiatka's drive in the fifth and Frank Merola made a nice running catch of Prosk's bid for a double in the eighth. . . . That big black dog who is a supreme exhibitionist and makes his appearance only before big crowds was on hand at the stadium last night. . . . He roared the crowd with two running broad jumps over the left field fence. . . . The pitching was uniformly good against the Chiefs but the club is in a mass slump.

Major League Roundup

By JOE KECHELE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Phillies and Tigers to clash in the 1950 World Series—That's what the signpost says.

If tradition is to be upheld, then the second place Philadelphia club in the National League and the first place Detroit team in the American should win the flag.

For years baseball men have the legend that the teams in first place on Independence Day were almost certain to meet in the World Series.

Data for the past 15 years show that 13 of the American League place-setters on that significant July 4 marker have gone on to win pennants. In the National League, only seven have fulfilled this legend.

Phillie Rated High

Of the eight trailing clubs to win in the National, five rose from the runnerup spot to overtake the leaders. So it appears that the second place Phils, not the front-running St. Louis Cardinals, stand almost as good a chance of winning the pennant.

Here's the race today following yesterday's bargain bills: Detroit leads New York by four games in the American with Cleveland five games behind and Boston six and a half. St. Louis tops Philadelphia by a game and a half in the National, Boston trails by two and a half and Brooklyn by four.

Yesterday's fireworks included three grand slam homers. That tied a record for most grand slams in one day. Ken Wood of the Browns hit one as did Andy Seminick of the Phillies and Sid Gordon of the Braves. It was Gordon's fourth home run with the bases full this season, tying a record held by seven others.

Yesterday's Results

| New York 5-3, Brooklyn 4-5 | | | | |

Bulla Favored In British Open

Troon, Scotland, July 5 (AP)—Johnny Bulla figures it will take a new record score to win the British Open Golf Championship—and he aims to set it.

The 72-hole title grind began this morning with the first of four rounds by 93 qualifiers who had scores of 153, better for two days' trials.

Bulla, a Pittsburgh pro, fed them with a four-under-par 140 over two courses.

His steady golf made him the talk of the tournament. Book-makers were regretting they pegged him at 25-1, making him a longshot compared with defending champion Bobby Locke, favorite at 4-1.

Unusually clear weather with light, gusty breezes has prevailed here for the two qualifying days.

"If it stays like this," Bulla said, "I think it probably will take 275 or 280 to win and that's what I'm aiming at."

The record for the British Open is 283 set in 1932 by Gene Sarazen on another course. It has been tied four times since. The open has been played on this course only once before—in 1923. It took 295 to win.

Locke blew up yesterday and shot a four-over-par 74 on the Troon course. He bobbed his little white cap and said grumpily, "290 ought to be safe here."

The average major league baseball crowd for July 4, 1949—28,531. That's right, your eyes are okay. It's just another oddity added to the many strange things which baseball has produced this season.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

Opening Dardenne

Concert Presented
Woodstock, July 3—With a program particularly suited to outdoor listening, the first in the "Concert Dardenne" series of three was presented Saturday afternoon on the lawn of the Yankee Pond road home of Victor H. Dardenne in Wittenburg. These outdoor concerts have all the elements of a miniature Tanglewood with the audience fanning out from the stone terrace on which the musicians are grouped overlooking the pond and mountains beyond.

In a happy departure from the more academic works, the trio—Mrs. Jane Courland, pianist; Dardenne, violinist; and Lucien LaPorte, cellist—opened with the sharply modern Ravel Trio and gave an inspired performance deriving the utmost from the rich whole-tone harmonies. Enchantment is an inherent quality of both Ravel and Debussy, and wisely placed on the program, the Sonata of Debussy, followed carrying the same spell, melody and haunting, with cello and piano.

During the intermission Dardenne announced that the Fifth Concerto of Vieuxtemps, which he performed with Mrs. Zelinda Dardenne, had been composed by the teacher of Dardenne's own teacher. The Dardennes presented the work with a spirit of excitement, which endeared the audience.

As an encore, Dardenne played the lovely Slavonic Dance of Fritz Kreisler. There is a gracious informality combined with a finesse of performance which makes these concerts wholly engaging. Everything is done for the comfort of the visitors, from transporting them from the parking space at the foot of the hill, to providing exceptionally comfortable seating arrangements for the less hardy.

The second concert will be given Saturday, July 8, at 4 p. m. Mrs. Clara Chichester and Dardenne will present the Sonata of Cesar Franck and there will be a reading of five piano compositions by the composer, Alexander Scriabin.

Wentzel in Aerial Rocket Leap at Stadium Thursday

The aerial rocket leap, designed as the supreme test for man and motor, will climax the two-hour circus of death the Joe Chitwood Auto Daredevils will present at the Kingston Municipal Stadium, Thursday evening for the benefit of the Kingston Colonials.
Christie (Snooks) Wentzel of Reading, Pa., one of Chitwood's greatest stars, will attempt to leap a 1950 stock sedan from a highly elevated rampway a great distance through the air to another landing runway, hurtling over another speeding sedan in his fight. The strain on man and motor in this feature almost belies the imagination, and there is definite proof of the hazards in store for the driver.
Chitwood established a world's record for 80 feet 11 inches with such a leap at Houston, Texas, in 1947, but his machine was so completely shattered that it was necessary to use blow torches to cut the body of the car away so Chitwood could be removed from the wreckage. He suffered severe facial cuts and shock to such an extent that his doctors ordered him never again to make such a leap.

Wentzel served as Chitwood's auto racing mechanic for nine years, before embarking on his career as a student driver, and Chitwood trained him to make the ramp to rocket leap. Wentzel, a sturdy Pennsylvania Dutchman, has made more than 70 such leaps successfully, and his steady temperament makes him an ideal man for such a dangerous assignment.

The answer to everyday insurance problems —
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: A short time ago, my husband decided to build an extra store room in the basement. He went to the garage to get his box of tools which he hadn't used for several weeks. The tool box was gone and we have no idea who took it or even just when it disappeared. We had no burglary insurance but I wondered if any insurance company would have paid the loss anyway since we were unable to state exactly when the tools were taken.

ANSWER: Most Residential Theft policies include a provision Disappearance clause which would cover the loss you describe. Under this clause, insured articles which disappear unaccountably are presumed stolen and the insurance company settles the loss.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE OR OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
